APUE Update
Date: Tuesday, September 15, 2015
Time: 8:30am to 10:30am
Location: Administration Building, Board Room
Presenter: Doug Estry, Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education

Dr. Estry will provide information on policy and procedural concerns that may impact how advisers assist students. Also, he may share with advisers any initiatives under way to support student success and report on any trends gleaned from past efforts.

Collegiate Recovery Community and Change for WRA
Date: Tuesday, September 22, 2015
Time: 8:30am to 10:30am
Location: Administration Building, Board Room
Presenters: Emily Young, Collegiate Recovery Coordinator and Bump Halbritter, College of Arts and Letters

Ms. Young will present on MSU’s Collegiate Recovery Community, a program that serves students in or seeking recovery from drug and alcohol addiction. She also will discuss the program’s mission, scope of services, and programs to date, outcomes, and future plans.

Dr. Halbritter will discuss changes in the WRA program and the plans for implementation.

Office of the Registrar (RO) Update
Date: Tuesday, September 29, 2015
Time: 8:30am to 10:30am
Location: Administration Building, Board Room
Presenters: Nicole Rovig, University Registrar; Kimberly Blair-Chambers and Traci Gulick, Associate Registrars

This session will include the following topics: hot topics in higher education; university-wide initiatives and academic policy changes; Student Information System updates; RO strategic goals and initiatives; and RO operations updates. There will be time for questions and answers. Finally, attendees will be given the opportunity to provide feedback. How can the RO better support you in your role? How can we improve service provided to the campus?

What’s Happenin’ with Study Abroad
Date: Tuesday, October 13, 2015
Time: 8:30am to 10:30am
Location: Administration Building, Board Room
Presenter: Dan Meier, Study Abroad Coordinator

Mr. Meier and perhaps his colleague will create an interactive workshop for advisors that includes talking points, scenarios/case studies (breaking up in groups), and discussions about key issues and trends in study abroad.

Affirmation, Support and Advocacy: Considering Critical Race Theory in Advising
Date: Tuesday, October 20, 2015
Time: 8:30am to 10:30am
Location: Administration Building, Board Room
Presenter: Jasmine Lee, James Madison College

As racial tensions continue to rise around the country, academic advisors have an important role in working with and supporting Students of Color, particularly at predominantly White institutions. Ms. Lee will present an interactive session using theory and data on Students of Color experiences to explore ways academic advisors can affirm, support and advocate for Students of Color who are attending predominantly White institutions.

“What Can I Do To Study Better?” - Based on Neuroscience
Date: Tuesday, November 3, 2015
Time: 8:30am to 10:30am
Location: Administration Building, Board Room
Presenter: Kathy Doig, College of Natural Science

Dr. Doig will discuss the neuroscience of learning for non-neuroscientists with recommendations on how to study based on the neuroscience.

These programs are sponsored by the Undergraduate University Division, and the All University Advisors Committee and supported by the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education. We appreciate your support in promoting professional development within your colleges and academic units.